MXA Network Mute Button Architect Specifications

The accessory shall be PoE powered programmable mute button with a touch sensitive functionality for the muting (Toggle/PTT/PTM) of networked systems products. The accessory shall include an LED configurable for both color and brightness. The accessory shall be compatible with third party control systems using command strings. The accessory shall connect to the network using one category cable that carries PoE and control. The accessory shall be configured using Designer control software to control the mute function of one or many networked devices. The accessory shall be compatible for installation in either 1" or 7/8" mounting holes. The accessory shall be the MXA Network Mute Button.